

Alpha

|                   |                                                        |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| IMO/off nr | 61420                                                  |
| Flag       | NOR                                                    |
| Ship type  | Seilskip, bark, treskrog sail ship, barque, wood hull. |
| Year Built | 1873/11                                                |
| Shipyard   | P. Brown, Welford, New Brunswick, Canada.              |
| Tonnage    | 660 brt, 631 nrt.                                      |
| Size       | L: 156,4'-B: 31,0'-D: 18,0'.                           |
| Propulsion | Seil, barkrigget.                                      |
| Class      | Bureau Veritas                                         |
| Vessel:    | OSL476189803                                           |
| Crew       | Skipsførere: Oluf Andersen 1895-1903                   |
| Manager    | Joh. Johanson & Co., Lysaker                           |
| Owner      | Skibs-A/S Alpha, Kristiania.                           |
| Port       | Kristiania                                             |
| Year (y)   | 1898                                                   |

OSL47618980320001 ALPHA. Foto fra boka Norske seilskuter.

History in Norwegian

1873 Bygget som MARTHA REID av P. Brown, Welford, New Brunswick, Canada for J. McK. Campell, Glasgow, Scotland. 1878 Solgt til Browne & Watson, Glasgow. 1895 Solgt til Skibs-A/S Alpha (Chr. Røtter), Kristiania. Omdøpt til ALPHA. 1898 Solgt til Skibs-A/S Alpha (Joh. Johanson & Co., Lysaker), Kristiania. 1902 Sprang lekk, kom seg inn til St. Michael, Asorene som nødhavn i desember mens hun var på reise fra Cape Cross, Tysk Sydvest-Afrika til Falmouth, England med guano. 1903 Kondemnert i januar.

History

1873 Built as MARTHA REID by P. Brown, Welford, New Brunswick, Canada for J. McK. Campell, Glasgow, Scotland. 1878 Sold to Browne & Watson, Glasgow. 1895 Sold to Skibs-A/S Alpha (Chr. Røtter), Kristiania. Renamed ALPHA. 1898 Sold to Skibs-A/S Alpha (Joh. Johanson & Co., Lysaker), Kristiania. 1902 Sprang a leak, arrived St. Michael, Azores as a port of refuge in December whilst on a voyage from Cape Cross, German South West Africa to Falmouth, England with guano. 1903 Condemned in January.